

Exam data retention policy

Examinations Data Retention Policy

Policy approved by the Faculty Board of Engineering for use in 2024-25. This policy applies to both electronic and hard copies of data relating to the following University Examinations:

Engineering Tripos: Parts IA, IB, IIA, IIB

Manufacturing Engineering Tripos: Parts IIA and IIB

Routinely available data

Data	Retention period	Accessible through
Final Mark book (Order of Merit)	Indefinitely	College Tutorial Office, Faculty Board Office
Marks per paper	Indefinitely	CamSIS

The marks contained in the final mark book and routinely released are those that the Faculty Board has determined as being meaningful or helpful as indicators of examination performance.

Data retained

Data	Retention period	Accessible through
Class lists	Indefinitely	Faculty Board Office
Reports of the Chairs of Examiners	Indefinitely	Faculty Board Office
Files of the Chairs of Examiners, including Minutes of the Examiners' meetings and the Examiners' Reports	Indefinitely	Faculty Board Office
Exam scripts	Twelve months from the publication of the results*	Examiners for the first month, thereafter: Faculty Board Office
Coursework	Twelve months from the publication of the results*	Examiners for the first month, thereafter: Faculty Board Office
Marks for individual questions	Twelve months from the publication of the results	Chairs of Examiners

*A broad sample of examination scripts and coursework will be retained for five years, and will be used when required e.g. for evaluation of teaching quality or for accreditation by professional engineering institutions.

At the end of the retention period, data are either destroyed or anonymised and used for statistical analysis.

In keeping with the provision of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) 2018, the Department does NOT release examination scripts to students. Examiners are expressly instructed and expected not to write comments on scripts.

An individual requesting data will be provided with data concerning himself/herself only. Data concerning other candidates' performance will not be released.

Academic staff acting as referees for students may disclose as much information to a relevant third party as they think appropriate. Guidance is available for staff on providing academic references for students.

In the case of a formal appeal, the Faculty Board Office should be notified and ALL data on the individual
